

Wednesday, February 1, 2023

BHM - One Book, One Halton Hills (Ongoing throughout February)

Date and Time: Wednesday, February 1 10:00 am

Join the Halton Hills Public Library for a month-long celebration of One Book, One Halton Hills 2023. Learn more about our latest title and enjoy displays and activities related to themes in the book. This year's title will be revealed on January 27.

Thursday, February 2, 2023

BHM - Exhibition: Women and Growth by Sheryl Keen (Ongoing until February 26)

Date and Time: Thursday, February 2 11:00 am

Address: 9 Church Street

January 30 – February 26 in the lower Sisnett Lobby of the Cultural Centre

See featured artwork by Sheryl Keen. Keen is an artist and author, with an interest in creating works for physical and mental spaces. She works mainly with acrylics, using a technique that stacks modeling paste to create a 3D effect.

Monday, February 6, 2023

BHM - #Reading Blackout Campaign - Ongoing throughout February

Date and Time: Monday, February 6 11:00 am

#ReadingBlackout campaign

HHPL is challenging you to be part of the #ReadingBlackout campaign where staff share information on social media about books by Black authors throughout the month. Join us in this reading challenge and tell us about some of your must-reads in the comments on our social channels.

Thursday, February 9, 2023

BHM - Exhibition: Women and Growth by Sheryl Keen (Ongoing until February 26)

Date and Time: Thursday, February 9 11:00 am

Address: 9 Church Street

January 30 – February 26 in the lower Sisnett Lobby of the Cultural Centre

See featured artwork by Sheryl Keen. Keen is an artist and author, with an interest in creating works for physical and mental spaces. She works mainly with acrylics, using a technique that stacks modeling paste to create a 3D effect.

Saturday, February 11, 2023

BHM - Clef Notes to Canvas

Date and Time: Saturday, February 11 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 9 Church Street, Halton Hills

Clef Notes to Canvas is an interactive art session where creativity, music and awareness meet.

Join us for a creative afternoon of music and visual art in the Studio at 9 Church Street, Halton Hills. The first part of the program focuses on "The Struggle" whereby participants allow the mood of the background music to evoke feelings that are translated onto the canvas. The second part focuses on the "Freedom" of creativity whereby participants allow music to influence exploration and expand upon the initial artwork created. All supplies provided; no experience necessary.

This event is FREE for the public; register in advance at the Eventbrite link here.

For more, watch this short video: <https://vimeo.com/501976811/02d908865a>

Ages 16+

Hosted in partnership with the Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton and facilitated by local artist Omar "Oms" Hopkinson.

Monday, February 13, 2023

BHM - #Reading Blackout Campaign - Ongoing throughout February

Date and Time: Monday, February 13 11:00 am

#ReadingBlackout campaign

HHPL is challenging you to be part of the #ReadingBlackout campaign where staff share information on social media about books by Black authors throughout the month. Join us in this reading challenge and tell us about some of your must-reads in the comments on our social channels.

Thursday, February 16, 2023

BHM - Exhibition: Women and Growth by Sheryl Keen (Ongoing until February 26)

Date and Time: Thursday, February 16 11:00 am

Address: 9 Church Street

January 30 – February 26 in the lower Sisnett Lobby of the Cultural Centre

See featured artwork by Sheryl Keen. Keen is an artist and author, with an interest in creating works for physical and mental spaces. She works mainly with acrylics, using a technique that stacks modeling paste to create a 3D effect.

Monday, February 20, 2023

BHM - #Reading Blackout Campaign - Ongoing throughout February

Date and Time: Monday, February 20 11:00 am

#ReadingBlackout campaign

HHPL is challenging you to be part of the #ReadingBlackout campaign where staff share information on social media about books by Black authors throughout the month. Join us in this reading challenge and tell us about some of your must-reads in the comments on our social channels.

Thursday, February 23, 2023

Halton Garden Week - Virtual Event

Date and Time: Thursday, February 23 8:00 am - 6:00 pm

Registration is for a free one ALL ACCESS PASS to all webinars, workshops, speakers, and resources!

Join us for a celebration of all things gardening and food related, from Thursday, February 23, 2023 to Saturday, February 25, 2023.

Hosted by Halton Food, Halton Environmental Network, and Greening Sacred Spaces, this online event will celebrate gardening across Halton Region with a public event focused on sustainable, local practices, and products.

Special guest: Author and native plant specialist Lorraine Johnson

To view the event schedule and full list of speakers, please visit: <https://sites.google.com/view/halton-garden-week-2023/home>

A wealth of information, like-minded folks, good vibes, and opportunities for meeting and networking with other gardeners and experts!

All events are free. There is, however, a significant cost to hosting this event. If you change your mind or cannot attend please email helen@haltonenvironment.ca to cancel your registration, so we may provide your ticket to s omeone

Organized by: Halton Environmental Network

Halton Environmental Network (HEN) strives to make the community of Halton a region with educated citizens, engaged stakeholders and best practice policies for climate change mitigation and adaptation and environmental sustainability.

Established in 2004, HEN is an incorporated non-profit organization operating in Halton Region (Oakville, Burlington, Milton, Halton Hills). HEN supports and enhances the capacity for local climate action and environmental sustainability across our community. HEN brings together relevant parties to drive change and facilitates communication, cooperation, resources and alignment with Community members, Conservation Authorities, Non-profits, Faith-Based Organizations) Government, and Educational Sector.

HEN has successfully implemented several programs including Halton Green Screens, Greening Sacred Spaces Halton-Peel, Generation Green, OakvilleReady, and Halton Food. HEN is also the backbone agency of the Halton Climate Collective.

<http://haltonenvironet.ca>

BHM - Exhibition: Women and Growth by Sheryl Keen (Ongoing until February 26)

Date and Time: Thursday, February 23 11:00 am

Address: 9 Church Street

January 30 – February 26 in the lower Sisnett Lobby of the Cultural Centre

See featured artwork by Sheryl Keen. Keen is an artist and author, with an interest in creating works for physical and mental spaces. She works mainly with acrylics, using a technique that stacks modeling paste to create a 3D effect.

Friday, February 24, 2023

Halton Garden Week - Virtual Event

Date and Time: Friday, February 24 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Registration is for a free one ALL ACCESS PASS to all webinars, workshops, speakers, and resources!

Join us for a celebration of all things gardening and food related, from Thursday, February 23, 2023 to Saturday, February 25, 2023.

Hosted by Halton Food, Halton Environmental Network, and Greening Sacred Spaces, this online event will celebrate gardening across Halton Region with a public event focused on sustainable, local practices, and products.

Special guest: Author and native plant specialist Lorraine Johnson

To view the event schedule and full list of speakers, please visit: <https://sites.google.com/view/halton-garden-week-2023/home>

A wealth of information, like-minded folks, good vibes, and opportunities for meeting and networking with other gardeners and experts!

All events are free. There is, however, a significant cost to hosting this event. If you change your mind or cannot attend please email helen@haltonenvironment.ca to cancel your registration, so we may provide your ticket to someone

Organized by: Halton Environmental Network

Halton Environmental Network (HEN) strives to make the community of Halton a region with educated citizens, engaged stakeholders and best practice policies for climate change mitigation and adaptation and environmental sustainability.

Established in 2004, HEN is an incorporated non-profit organization operating in Halton Region (Oakville, Burlington, Milton, Halton Hills). HEN supports and enhances the capacity for local climate action and environmental sustainability across our community. HEN brings together relevant parties to drive change and facilitates communication, cooperation, resources and alignment with Community members, Conservation Authorities, Non-profits, Faith-Based Organizations) Government, and Educational Sector.

HEN has successfully implemented several programs including Halton Green Screens, Greening Sacred Spaces Halton-Peel, Generation Green, OakvilleReady, and Halton Food. HEN is also the backbone agency of the Halton Climate Collective.

<http://haltonenvironet.ca>

Saturday, February 25, 2023

Halton Garden Week - Virtual Event

Date and Time: Saturday, February 25 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Registration is for a free one ALL ACCESS PASS to all webinars, workshops, speakers, and resources!

Join us for a celebration of all things gardening and food related, from Thursday, February 23, 2023 to Saturday, February 25, 2023.

Hosted by Halton Food, Halton Environmental Network, and Greening Sacred Spaces, this online event will celebrate gardening across Halton Region with a public event focused on sustainable, local practices, and products

Special guest: Author and native plant specialist Lorraine Johnson

To view the event schedule and full list of speakers, please visit: <https://sites.google.com/view/halton-garden-week-2023/home>

A wealth of information, like-minded folks, good vibes, and opportunities for meeting and networking with other gardeners and experts!

All events are free. There is, however, a significant cost to hosting this event. If you change your mind or cannot attend please email helen@haltonenvironment.ca to cancel your registration, so we may provide your ticket to someone

Organized by: Halton Environmental Network

Halton Environmental Network (HEN) strives to make the community of Halton a region with educated citizens, engaged stakeholders and best practice policies for climate change mitigation and adaptation and environmental sustainability.

Established in 2004, HEN is an incorporated non-profit organization operating in Halton Region (Oakville, Burlington, Milton, Halton Hills). HEN supports and enhances the capacity for local climate action and environmental sustainability across our community. HEN brings together relevant parties to drive change and facilitates communication, cooperation, resources and alignment with Community members, Conservation Authorities, Non-profits, Faith-Based Organizations) Government, and Educational Sector.

HEN has successfully implemented several programs including Halton Green Screens, Greening Sacred Spaces Halton-Peel, Generation Green, OakvilleReady, and Halton Food. HEN is also the backbone agency of the Halton Climate Collective.

<http://haltonenvironet.ca>

BHM - Artist talk with Sheryl Keen

Date and Time: Saturday, February 25 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Artist Talk with Sheryl Keen

February 25 from 2pm – 3:30pm at the Library & Cultural Centre

Don't miss the artist talk on February 25, facilitated by Francesca Durham in the lower Sisnett Lobby and Studio. Artist Sheryl Keen will discuss the theme of her show Women and Growth, her inspirations and art process. All are welcome to attend.

Monday, February 27, 2023

BHM - #Reading Blackout Campaign - Ongoing throughout February

Date and Time: Monday, February 27 11:00 am

#ReadingBlackout campaign

HHPL is challenging you to be part of the #ReadingBlackout campaign where staff share information on social media about books by Black authors throughout the month. Join us in this reading challenge and tell us about some of your must-reads in the comments on our social channels.

<https://calendar.haltonhills.ca>