Address: Norval United Church Georgetown - 14015 Danby Road (walkathon start/end)

It's cold out there.

But on the Coldest Night of the Year, Feb. 24th, Georgetown Bread Basket & Links2Care (and hopefully YOU!) are Stepping Up once again as event co-hosts to warm spirits, hearts and tummies in Halton Hills.

CNOY is a winterrific walkathon (happening in 180+ cities across Canada!!) supporting organizations like ours to continue our 2+ decades helping neighbours struggling with hunger, housing, and health issues.

GOAL: RAISE $50,000 to feed, house and support our community's most vulnerable.

WE NEED YOUR HELP:

- TEAM CAPTAINS (inspirational leaders willing to cajole friends, family, and colleagues into joining them out in the cold for a great cause)
- WALKERS (compassionate people, who laugh at the cold if promised hot beverages and snacks)
- DONORS generous souls with a hankering to build amazing communities
- SPONSORS local businesses offering funds, food and prizes in return for a sledload of corporate social responsibility
- VOLUNTEERS benevolent folks who give time and skills to benefit others

WHERE: You can choose to walk a 2 or 5 km route in Georgetown starting and ending at Norval United Church (14015 Danby Rd.) or in Acton (generously led by the Acton Rotary) starting and ending at Links2Care Acton Hub (69 Acton Blvd.). Both walks are from 5-7pm. The Georgetown site will have opening ceremonies beginning at 4pm

HOW: Walk, Sponsor, Donate, Volunteer! What better New Year's Resolution than fun, exercise and some more warm-hearted community building? For info and to sign up visit www.cnoy.org/haltonhills or contact us at in
